The Golden Source International Award

Established in the spirit of fostering a strong academic community in which the learning and scholarship of every member may flourish with vigilant protection for the rights and freedom of speech, academic freedom, and freedom of research.

Application Guidelines:

- The applicant must be at least 18 years of age
- The applicant must have applied for the EAP program and have paid their tuition in full
- The applicant must submit a written short essay answering the Composition Topic listed below (maximum 500 words)
- The completed application and composition must be sent by email to qsoe@queensu.ca by the deadline Friday January 14, 2022 by midnight EST (Ontario time)

Composition Topic:

What is something you are passionate about? Why are you passionate about it? How will studying English as a second language contribute?

Scholarship Award Criteria:

- The writing is persuasive, cohesive, and presents and supports an argument or position
- Scholarship applicant displays potential as a writer
- While the scholarship composition may contain errors in organization and mechanics, these errors do not seriously detract from the writer's message

Application Information

Please complete the following and submit alongside your composition

Family Name

Given Name

Date of Birth (DD/MM/YYYY)

Queen's School of English Student Number

Have you successfully applied for the Winter 2022 EAP program? ☐ yes ☐ no

Please submit your completed application and short essay to qsoe@queensu.ca. Please indicate The Golden Source International Award in the subject line of your email.