

Marion Edith Dubin Scholarship in English

Established in memory of Marion Edith Dubin and awarded to a student who might not otherwise have the opportunity to study at Queen's School of English.

Application Guidelines:

- ◆ The applicant must be at least 18 years of age
- ◆ The applicant must have applied for the EAP program and have paid their tuition in full
- ◆ The applicant must submit a written short essay answering the Composition Topic listed below (maximum 500 words)
- ◆ The completed application and composition must be sent by email to qsoe@queensu.ca by the deadline Friday August 27, 2021 by midnight EST (Ontario time)

Composition Topic:

What motivates you to continue pursuing English language learning? When you face challenges in your studies, what helps you push through them?

Scholarship Award Criteria:

- ◆ The writing is persuasive, cohesive, and presents and supports an argument or position
- ◆ Scholarship applicant displays potential as a writer
- ◆ While the scholarship composition may contain errors in organization and mechanics, these errors do not seriously detract from the writer's message

Application Information

Please complete the following and submit alongside your composition

Family Name

Given Name

Date of Birth (DD/MM/YYYY)

Queen's School of English Student Number

Have you successfully applied for the Fall 2021 EAP program?

yes no

Please submit your completed application and short essay to qsoe@queensu.ca. Please indicate Marion Edith Dubin Scholarship in the subject line of your email.

The winner will be chosen during the 2nd week of the EAP program.